QUINTESSENTIAL TOWN & GOWN

Winding cobbled streets, elegant architecture, spires and quads - this is the quaint and beautiful spot where our hotel in Cambridge lies.

Sitting snugly among the Grade II listed buildings of picturesque Trumpington Street, our Cambridge hotel was lovingly converted from old University buildings. Retaining the original character and stunning architectural features, this boutique Cambridge hotel is the ideal place to relax, celebrate or do business. Dating back in part to medieval times, Hotel du Vin Cambridge boasts a private events room perfect for special occasions, meetings and events and a cosy library. Alongside our spacious bistro is our first open-style kitchen and the meandering cellar bar.

A GOURMET JOURNEY

When it comes to food, prim and formal gourmet dining we aren't. Relaxed, attentive and classically French, we most certainly are.

Choose one of our set menus or create your very own bespoke dining experience with our talented Head Chef. From simple or intricate canapés to wedding breakfasts, to informal buffets or sit-down dinners, every mouthful is prepared using fresh, seasonal ingredients wherever possible.

THE PERFECT LOCATION

Cambridge is a delight to visit in any season: relax in its many pubs, restaurants and cafes whilst exploring the independent shops around the historic market place. There are brand new shopping areas too, with all the high street favourites that you would expect.

Be inspired by the museums and art galleries; spot the stars of the future at a student theatrical production, or see a show at the Arts Theatre.

One of the busiest tourist spots in the country with over three million visitors a year, Cambridge is also famously home to one of the world's most prestigious universities, which is itself a source of much of that tourism. With some colleges, such as Peterhouse, dating back to the eleventh century and all schools of architecture - from Gothic to Modern - represented, the city is a magnet to anyone with an interest in British history. This, coupled with the traditional sights of punts, May Balls and cyclists, helps to create a romantic image of Cambridge that is known the world over.
